KEEP! KEEP! THE LADY FAINTS.

"To the brink of an abyss,
To the verge of a death,
From the bosom of hell,
To the palace of glory."

When sudden fainting spells come upon a lady, you may always suspect some morbid disturbance or trouble, or some great disorder in the circulation and nerve centers. A remedy that has always proved successful in warding off and removing the tendency to a recurrence of fainting spells—that removes the cause of them, corrects the circulation of blood, and gives to the system that even running nervous energy so essential, is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

The "Prescription" is guaranteed to give satisfaction in every case, or money refunded. Nothing else does as much. You only pay for this good you get. Can you ask more?
As a regulator and promoter of functional action, at the critical period of change from girlhood to womanhood, "Favorite Prescription" is a perfectly safe remedial agent, and can produce only good results. It is equally efficacious and valuable in its effects when taken for those disorders and derangements incident to that later and most critical period, known as "The change of life."

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operations of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa Mr. Epps has provided our breakfast tables with a delicious and healthful beverage which may save us many heavy doctors' bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up and strength enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle poisons are found in our system ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal ailment by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly assimilated frame."—Civil Service Gazette.

Miss Inez Merrill, of East Eddington, is home from her studies in Massachusetts for the holiday vacation. She has been making a stop with friends here.

Mr. W. F. Abbott goes to Bucksport tomorrow evening, and if he can get a sufficient number of scholars, will make arrangements for starting a class of dancing in that town.

Mr. T. W. Beattie, superintendent of the woolen mill in Old Town, and Mr. J. W. Harmon, agent of the Bodwell Water Power Company, were in the city yesterday on a business trip.

Preparations for Christmas concerts are now being made by the committees of the various churches in the city which have the matter in charge, and some fine events may be expected at each of the edifices.

Mrs. Capt. William Crosby left, yesterday, on the steamer Penobscot for Belfast, and will remain there for a time. Capt. Crosby is now running the steamer Castine on the Belfast and Deer Isle route.

Considerable ice has formed along the banks of the river during the cold nights recently and the coves are filled with it during the day. The time for the closing of the river for the winter season is rapidly approaching.

The new circle of King's Daughters which was recently organized in this city held a meeting last evening at the home of Mrs. W. E. Pierce. The society has been named and will be known as Volunteer Circle of King's Daughters.

Mr. George Getchell's ice house is to be enlarged and work on another room has already commenced. Mr. Getchell will put up a stock of the crystal commodity this winter for some of the grocers, who in years past, have housed their own stock.

On account of sickness Rev. J. T. Crosby was unable to occupy his pulpit Sunday. Mr. Wilson, of the Bangor Theological Seminary, preached at the church both in the morning and in the evening, the usual evening service being given up and a preaching service being substituted for it.

Three pounds of cooking raisins for twenty-five cents and good cooking molasses at thirty-five cents a gallon are among the bargains offered by Mr. H. C. Clapp, the grocer, this week. Prunes, honey and popping corn and also hen feed of all kinds are kept by him. He offers a black walnut centre table for sale cheap. Read his advertisement.

The skating on the overflowed brick yard flat, on Chamberlain street, was very fair, yesterday, and large numbers of the younger people were to be seen wending their way in that direction with their skates in hand, intending to indulge in the fascinating pastime. The deeper ponds should be kept off for a time yet, as the ice cannot be of sufficient thickness to make skating on them safe.

Preparations for the "cobweb party" to be given this evening by the social committee of the First Congregational Y. P. S. C. E., are about completed, and everything points to its being a most enjoyable and successful event. The number of invitations that have been issued is about sixty, and these in addition to all the members of the society who will be present, assure a large attendance.

Mrs. Nellie M. Fernald, of Winterport, whose illness we have before mentioned, died yesterday at her home in that town. She was the wife of Capt. William R. Fernald, of Winterport, and the daughter of Capt. Francis G. Arrey, of this city. The many friends of Capt. Arrey and his family will deeply regret to learn of Mrs. Fernald's decease, and will extend the sincerest sympathies to the afflicted ones in their loss and sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Miller were very pleasantly surprised Saturday evening by forty or fifty of their friends, mostly Mr. Miller's fellow employees at Messrs. Parker & Peakes' shoe factory in Bangor and their wives, who made a surprise party for the couple at their new residence on Center street, which they have recently moved into, and brought a handsome large plush rocker and a fine oak stand as presents for Mr. and Mrs. Miller. Dancing was indulged in and a very pleasant evening was passed.

The sides of the new ice house which Messrs. E. H. & H. Bellins are erecting are now nearly closed in and the roof timbers are going into position rapidly. The building is heavily framed and will be a substantial one for the storage of the crystal. A large crew of men is now at work on it and progress is being made fast. It will be ready for use in housing the crop of the coming winter. The addition at the end of the old house owned by the firm has not been framed yet, but the most of the preparatory work has been done, and when the job of erecting it is begun the structure will go up rapidly. The two new buildings will enable the Messrs. Bellins to greatly increase their ice business.

Penobscot's Progress and People Who Propose to be

Préminent.

The political campaign just closed has been remarkably productive of what is known as campaign literature, in which the tariff question has been discussed in and con. Among the books advocating free trade we have TAXATION AND WORK by Edward Atkinson, a series of treatises on the tariff and the currency, and THE FARMERS' TARIFF MANUAL, by Daniel Strange, from G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York. Price $1.25 each.

PRAYER MEETING THEOLOGY, by E. J. Merrill, is a discussion in dialogue form of the question: "What is the matter with the prayer meeting," and of the methods of making it more attractive and fruitful. Price $1.35.

THE STORY OF SICILY, Phœnician, Greek and Roman, by Edward A. Freeman, Professor of Ancient History in the University of Oxford, is a valuable addition to the "Story of the Nations" series, and will be especially interesting to those making a study of Greek history. Price $1.50.

THE END OF TIME, A poem of the Future, by L. G. Barbours, D. D., is a religious dialogue in which the problem of future life is discussed. Price, $1.50.

MANNERS AND MONUMENTS OF PRE-HISTORIC PEOPLES, by the Marquis de Nadaillac, is a handsomely printed and bound octavo volume of most intense interest to the antiquary, or general student. It contains upwards of 400 pages with 115 fine illustrations of early stone and bronze implements and ornaments. Price, $3.00.

The above books are all published by G. P. Putnam's Sons, New York, and are for sale by D. Bugbee & Co.

A YOUNG KNIGHT ERRANT, by Oliver Optic. Mr. Adams has the happy faculty of presenting to the young the excellencies and beauty of an upright life without moralizing, in a style of writing that is altogether his own, and which has won for him a world-wide reputation. He attracts, while he instructs, in showing the essential elements of a noble character. This is exemplified in "A Young Knight Errant," in which Louis Belgrave, the hero of the two preceding volumes of the series, continues his voyage around the world in his yacht, meeting with many exciting adventures and absorbing the practical information that is gained by travel. The scene is laid in the West Indies, the yacht touching a many interesting places, all of which the author visited before writing this volume. Price $1.50.

THE NEW ENGLAND COUNTRY, Text and Illustrations by Clifton Johnson. Over one hundred illustrations of views and scenes of New England village and country life, with appropriate text, are given in this delightful volume, which is divided into four parts, as follows: Part I. Old Times on a New England Farm. Part II. The New England of To-day. Part III. New England as the Traveller sees it. Part IV. Camping Among the New England Hills. Changing seasons, the rugged hills and tumbling streams, the winding roadways, the villages and little farms, with the social and family life of the earlier and later days, are all here faithfully portrayed by camera, brush, pencil and pen. The sons and daughters of New England, whether at home or abroad, as well as all lovers of rural life and scenery, will be charmed with the book. The cover design, which is very tasteful, is by Mr. Johnson. Price $2.50.

BARON TRUMP'S MARVELLOUS UNDERGROUND JOURNEY. By Ingersoll Lockwood. Twenty-six full-page illustrations by Charles Howard Johnson. Original Cover Designs. Mr. Lockwood's astonishing versatility, unlimited powers of invention, and untiring humor were never displayed to better advantage than in this new wonder book. The Little Baron, after reading Don Quixote's book on "A World within a World," immediately starts on a voyage of discovery and investigation. The story of his adventures in entering Polyphemus Funnel, the entrance to this wonderful world, and among the Mikkamunkies, Soodopoles, Koltik-werps, and other strange peoples who live inside our earth, is a wonderful chronicle of the marvellous, running over with bright ideas, quaint conceits, and wholesome fun. Although intended primarily for youth, the story will be enjoyed by older people who have a perception of satire, as many of the peculiarities of the outside world are touched upon in a very humorous manner. Price $2.00.

QUABBIN, the story of a small town, with outlooks upon Puritan life, by Francis H. Underwood, L. J. D. The title of this book "Quabbin" is the name assigned to the town or village which he makes the centre and scene of his reminiscences and descriptions. It matters not what was actually the name or the exact spot of the place, for the charm and value of the book lie in the fact that such relations of character and incidents, of experiences and developments, as give life to his history, enter into the realities and retrospect of history for a hundred New England towns. Price $1.75.

FIGHTING FOR THE RIGHT, by Oliver Optic. Another of the Blue and the Gray Series. A stirring, thrilling tale of struggle, adventure, daring hairbreadth escapes, jolly romances, glowing reminiscences of perils dared and shared together, all told with such strength, such simplicity, and such effectiveness that it wins the author hosts of fresh as well as attaches more firmly scores of old friends.

The above five books are published by Lee & Shepard, Boston, and for sale by Charles Hight.

ZENOBI, by William Ware. This well-remembered standard work tells the story of the fall of Palmyra, and the life and reign of its great queen, Zenobia, who at one time ruled the Eastern world. This is told in the form of a romance, in which the great historical characters, both Zenobia and Palmyra, are made to take part.

It is not only historically accurate, but it is so full of interest in the dramatic plot in which the author has woven his characters. The book is one of the best.
